Kitchen bouquet is a browning sauce used to give more color and flavor to gravies, sauces and meats, such as beef and chicken.. This sauce has been around for centuries, being produced as early as 1873, and is made with caramel, a vegetable base (it can use carrot, onion, celery and more), colorant and sodium.. This gives foods not only a brownish, more appealing color but also a sweeter ...

The other night I had to run to the grocery store. I generally do everything humanly possible to not take all of my children to the store with me at the same time, but this particular night I had no choice. It was just about bed time and everyone was cranky already when I realized I would need to pack them all up to get some things I'd need early the next morning.
