Rated 5 out of 5 by Frank from Excellent Upgrade of my 5D Mark III The 5D mark IV is an excellent upgrade of my 5D Mark III as it is better on all fronts. I especially appreciate the higher dynamic range, the 36% increased resolution and the improved AF in terms of number of active AF points at F/8 and DPAF for video.

Canon geezer. Joel, I have a 30D, 40D and 7D. Reviewing some pictures I took a few years ago when I lived in the States (Boston), what struck me about a bunch of pics that I took with my trusty 30D at the Zoo there, was just how smooth and natural looking my pics looked taken at ISO 800, and even the ISO 1600 shots looked very decent indeed.

This Canon 40D guide almost wrote itself. As a long-time owner of a Canon 20D (which precedes the 40D by two generations) I was naturally curious to see what new features Canon had packed in to their latest high-end camera.

May. 27th We're told (thanks) that someone from Canon recently visited several studios in NYC with a 'test' 1D X body for some well supervised tests. Images had to be processed on a particular laptop that came along with the camera/minder and no images were allowed to be retained. The camera produced files of similar dimensions to a 5D3, but exhibited -much- better colour rendition and ...

Canon 1D X Mk3 info and rumours - Northlight Images

2019 January. 12th There's been no direct info about any followup to the 5Ds for a while, but combining part of what we were told about MF and a 100+MP EOS R with IBIS [Medium format page], along with some recent info at [] makes me wonder if there will ever be a 5Ds mk2 and that it will be that EOS R?. If it is, can I add multishot using the IBIS, to the specs please?
