In this manual all commands are given in code boxes, where the R code is printed in black, the comment text in blue and the output generated by R in green. All comments/explanations start with the standard comment sign ' #' to prevent them from being interpreted by R as commands. This way the content in the code boxes can be pasted with their comment text into the R console to evaluate their ...

A not always very easy to read, but practical copy & paste format has been chosen throughout this manual. In this format all commands are represented in code boxes, where the comments are given in blue color. To save space, often several commands are concatenated on one line and separated with a semicolon ';
